Plymouth Meeting, PA

For immediate release:

IntePros Incorporated has promoted Ken Hull to be its new President. IntePros provides highly skilled consultants for business organizations across the country on a contract or permanent basis in the following business practices: PMO Suite, Information Technology, and Quality & Regulatory Compliance. As a 23 year veteran at IntePros, Ken has been the company's Chief Operating Officer and has lead the Company in business development and sales leadership. A scholar athlete graduate of Duke University and UNC Greensboro (MBA), Ken has always been focused on people. He has combined a warm, witty and caring demeanor with a driving, winning team spirit. The company is anticipating continued growth and prosperity for its clients, consultants and internal teammates.

Ken is replacing 24 year IntePros veteran, Dan Hinckley as president. Dan has done an outstanding job in growing the Company and driving the business for the past five years. Last year, IntePros was just shy of $70M in revenues with over 400 consultants in the field. Dan will continue to advise IntePros as a board member and financial consultant.
